Natural New Zealand Sleep Products

woola.co.nz

Here in New Zealand we are striving to keep our country green, sustainable and beautiful. We found an increasing desire for products made from natural products that were sustainably sourced. From this Woola was born. Starting with pillows the range quickly grew to include mattresses, bases, duvets and overlays. We export this range right across the globe.

OUR THREE RULES OF WOOLA

Natural Materials

Products made with natural materials

Completely Sustainable

All natural materials must be sustainably sourced.

Totally New Zealand

All products are hand crafted in New Zealand by New Zealanders

The Comfort

We have a saying at Woola, nature is always best. Wool is one of the marvels of nature with its ability to regulate temperature, giving you the perfect nights sleep all year. Its also naturally flame and water resistant and most importantly one of the softest materials from nature.

The Core

The core is the strength and longevity of our Woola sleep products. That's why we use only 100% natural latex rubber. Latex is the most resilient spring given by nature, having natural durable support and antibacterial properties.

The Cover

We use three natural fibres to cover Woola products: Cotton-known for its softness, Linen-known for its strength, Hemp-known for its antimicrobial properties.
